

Le Ann Doane

Former Fairbanks resident Le Ann Doane, 58, passed away Jan 4, 2009 in Phoenix.

She was born in Fairbanks on Jan 30, 1950, to James R. Day and Helen Betty Metcalf and remained here until 1991. Le Ann was employed as a recreational aide at the Fairbanks Pioneers Home.

She moved to Arkansas in 1991 and to Arizona in 2005. For the past three years, she had resided at the Arizona State Veteran's Home because of health issues.

She is survived by her loving husband, Clark; sons and daughter-in-law, Scott McGee of Fairbanks, Shannon and Tiffany McGee of Fairbanks, Christopher Doane of Bentonville Ark., and Gregory Doane of Coventry, Conn; nine grandchildren; her mother, Helen Betty Day; sisters, JoAnn Sweet of Fairbanks and Dianne Altrock of Anchorage, brother, Michael Day; and many other relatives.

She will be laid to rest at the National Memorial Cemetery of Arizona.
